

Changes to the Box Leagues - Jan 2023

New Year, New Box Leagues!

As you will have noticed, we've now moved to the LTA Box League Manager to organize our matches. This will: (a) make it easier for you to enter your results, (b) make it easier for us to turn around each round of the box leagues, and (c) for those that care, it will also give you points in your LTA / World Tennis Ranking number.

For what it's worth, this system is used by dozens of clubs including the national tennis centre itself and, for example, Queens Club.

Once the new leagues are set up in that system you will get an email titled "Your new Box League matches" which will let you know your opponents and will have a link to enter your scores. That link is also mobile-friendly.

A couple of things to note:

1. The scoring is slightly different - 3 points for a win, 1 for a loss. However, there are also standings calculations, where we take into account your differences between sets won and lost, which means that, in our testing, the end position comes out exactly the same as in the current system.
2. In your final set please just put in 1-0 or 0-1

For people wanting to join the leagues or if you want to withdraw, this should also be done using the LTA site.

To join:
